

Estate Preservation Law Offices
The Estate Preservation Law Scholarship Fund

2010 -2011 Scholarship Application Form for College Students

Please download form, complete and mail it with requested attachments (see submission details below), postmarked no later than March 15, 2010. No phone calls please.

Eligibility Requirements:

This scholarship is open to:

1. Full-time college students who plan to major in education and pursue a career working with special needs students
2. Students who exhibit solid academic achievement and leadership potential.
3. Applicants must be attending a college located in Worcester, MA.

Name:

Address (home or campus):

Phone Number:

E-mail Address:

Name of College/University Currently Attending: _____

Current Status (please check one)

Sophomore ___ Junior ___ Senior focusing on special needs education ___

Major course of study _____

Cumulative grade point average: _____

Student Status

- Full time student _____
- Part-time student _____
- Day student _____
- Continuing education student _____

Please include the following:

- A list of extracurricular, community activities or internship/co-op experiences that you have been involved with while in school
- Work history if applicable
- Essay: Why I have chosen a career dedicated to helping children with special needs (500 to 700 words)
- Two letters of recommendation; one must be from an instructor or faculty advisor

Submission Instructions:

Please mail your application and attachments, no later than March 15, 2010, to:

Lauren Dodge
The Estate Preservation Law Scholarship Fund
Estate Preservation Law Offices
71 Elm Street – Suite 102
Worcester, MA 01609

Confirmation: Applicants will receive e-mail confirmation that the application and materials have been received.

Notification: The winner will be notified during April 2010.

About Estate Preservation Law Offices

Estate Preservation Law Offices of Worcester, MA, www.estatepreservationlaw.com, is a law firm whose skilled professionals are committed to protecting clients' assets during their lifetime and preserving them for future generations - through integrated estate and asset protection planning. Their broad range of vital services include: estate planning, asset protection planning through domestic and foreign techniques, business and corporate planning, corporate and individual tax planning, elder and Medicaid planning, estate and trust administration, guardianships and conservatorships, retirement planning, special needs and disability planning, financial aid planning and charitable and exempt organizations.